

Delta's building automation business group provides solutions for smart communities, low-carbon buildings, and healthy buildings, designing and building energy-saving, comfortable, and safe spaces and environments. Delta's global teams tailor local solutions for different vertical markets and provide one-stop services. Delta's building automation solutions have an outstanding global reputation based on years of experience in LED high-end lighting, building management control systems, and smart security surveillance.

www.delta-americas.com